Title: CONTROLLED DATA NETWORK ERROR RECOVERY

REQUEST FOR RECONSIDERATION

Commissioner for Patents
P.O. Box 1450
Alexandria, VA 22313-1450

Sir:

In response to the Office Action dated October 3, 2005, please reconsider the patentability of the pending claims based on the following remarks.

The Office Action rejected claims 1-22 under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Riley et al. (US 5,856,972). Applicant traverses the prior art rejection because Riley et al. fails to disclose, teach, or suggest all of the features in the rejected claims. For example, Riley et al. fails to disclose "indicating a possible duplication of said unit when resending it, the possible duplication showing that said unit was resent because no response was received," as recited in claims 1-9, "indicating a possible duplication of said unit when resending it to the second receiving entity, the possible duplication showing that said unit was resent because no response was received," as recited in claim 10, a sending entity being arranged "to indicate a possible duplication of said unit when resending it, the possible duplication showing that said unit was resent because no response was received," as recited in claims 11-16, a network node arranged to "indicate that said unit is a possible duplication when resending said unit, the possible duplication showing that said unit was resent because no response was received," as recited in claims 17-20, a network node "receiving a unit having an indication indicating a possible duplication of said unit, the possible duplication showing that said unit was resent because no response was received," as recited in claim 21, or a network node "arranged to
